DRIVER OF STOLEN CAR KILLED IN ACCIDENT NEAR ARLINGTON

Raymond Glaser, 19, of Cincinnati,
Crushed to Death Sunday, But
Four Companions Escape

TRIES TO AVOID HITTING DOG

Police Notified Today By Cincinnati
Authorities to Hold The Tearing Automobile

STOLEN. THEY DECLARE

Boys Assert it Belonged to Glaser's
Uncle—All Leave Following Accident Near Arlington

BULLETIN.

Currin and Geran, who returned to Rushville this afternoon, admitted the automobile
which was wrecked near Arlington Sunday, and the driver
killed, had been taken for a
"joy" ride. They said arrangements had been made to pay for
the damage done to the machine.

A stolen automobile from Cincinnati was wrecked, when it struck a
dog just east of the bridge this side
of Arlington, early Sunday morning,
and rolled down an embankment, and Raymond Glaser, age nineteen, of Cincinnati, the driver, was instantly
killed, four other boys in the car,
all from Cincinnati, escaping serious injury.

The first intimation that the automobile was stolen came this morning when Cincinnati police notified the Rushville chief of police to hold the automobile pending their arrival as it had been stolen.

Glaser's companions aroused some suspicion, however, because of their
hasty departure after the accident.
Two of them were urged to remain
here with the body pending the arrival of Glaser's father.

They asserted that the automobile
belonged to Glaser's uncle.

Glaser, 746 Wade street, Cincinnati, arrived here Sunday afternoon, in an automobile, and arranged for the shipment of the body back home. It
& W. at seven o'clock.

According to testimony of the four survivors of the accident, Glaser was unsuccessful in trying to avoid hitting a dog that ran out in the road
and lost control of the car. It
and Glaser cut it back to the right
too sharp for the speed it was going.

Walter Priest Relieved of Approximately $50 in Cash And Checks
Saturday Midnight

IN BLOCK AND HALF OF HOME

Walter Priest, who is employed
at John Madden's restaurant, 103
West First street, was held up and
robbed of approximately $50 in cash
and checks, receipts at the restaurant, near the Pennsylvania railroad crossing in Jackson street, between Fourth and Fifth, at midnight Saturday night.

The holdup occurred one and a half blocks from Priest's home and
he hurried home and notified the police, but no trace of the robber
has been found.

He was described as tall and
slender, and as wearing a handkerchief tied over his face, a yellow hunter's coat and a slouch hat.

The thief walked up behind Priest,
took hold of his collar and ordered
him to put his hands up. Priest
was not at first inclined to do so,
but his hands went up promptly when
he felt a revolver poked in his side.
His pockets were searched and he was ordered to "beat it" home without looking around.

The haul consisted of $34 in cash and about $14 in checks. This was money that had been taken in after the bank closed. More than $20
had been paid out in meeting bills,
else the robber would have obtained
more.

WILL OPEN SEALS CAMPAIGN

Workers To Be Entertained At Luncheon Saturday Noon

The Christmas Seals campaign will be formally opened in Rush county next Saturday noon with a luncheon at the Social club, at which time township chairman, members of the Woman's Council, the Psi Chi Xi sorority and other workers will be present.

The Woman's Council, as in the past, will have supervision over the campaign, which will be conducted by the sorority. Miss Helen Frazee will act as chairman.

A program of short talks from members of various civic organizations in Rushville is being arranged, and some special music will be provided. Invitations to the luncheon, which will be served at 12:30, were in the mail today.

E. A. LEE, FORMER COUNCILMAN, DIES

Three Years Illness With Cancer of
The Stomach Prove Fatal to Local Business Man

MOST OF LIFE SPENT HERE

Filled Out Unexpired Term on City
Council And Served Full Term
Under Mayor Irvin

Edward A. Lee, age 67 years, former city councilman and implement dealer of this city, died at 7:30 o'- clock Sunday night at his home, 331
West First street, death resulting from a three years illness with cancer of the stomach.

The deceased was a native of this county, and was born just east of Arlington. Practically all of his life was spent in this county, excepting
several years when he moved to Alabama with his parents, directly following the Civil War.

He returned to Rushville, when a young man, and married. In his early days, he was a clerk in the Bohannon Brothers grocery store, and later was in the dray business and street sprinkling business. As years went by, he entered business on a large scale and was the owner of an implement and grain store, which busi-

KENTLAND BANK DEAL BEFORE GRAND JURY

Receiver, Fair Board Official, Cashier
of Bank and Bank Examiners
Are Witnesses.

$155,000 "LOAN" PROBED

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 19.—
A Marion county grand jury today
heard four witnesses who were in position to tell something very definite of the governor's transactions
in which the Discount and Deposit
Bank of Kentland figures.

Immediately after the grand jury
went into session, William Darroch,
life-long friend of McCray and receiver for the Kentland bank, went into the grand jury room.

He had previously said that not
one cent of the $155,000 of the funds
of the state board of agriculture,
which, according to I. Newt Brown,
secretary-treasurer of the board,
declared was intended for deposit,
had ever reached the bank.

A short time later Amos Morris,
cashier of the bank; Thomas D.
Barr, state bank examiner, who went over the books of the bank after a receiver was appointed; and Riley
C. Adams, Indianapolis banker and secretary of the committee in charge
of McCray's assets, entered the room.

Members of the state board of agriculture held a second meeting to examine the "loan" of $155,000 to the governor, today.

EPIDEMICS CAUSE BIG LOSS OF TIME

Measles, Scarlet Fever and Whooping Cough Cut Attendance in the Township Schools

ATTENDANCE OFFICER REPORT
Enrollment Increases Slightly During
Past Month Due to Pupils Moving
Into County

The attendance in the schools of the county during the past month was reported today by Miss Dorothy Sparks, county attendance officer, as being satisfactory in every detail,
with few pupils absent from school
without legal excuses.

Epidemics of whooping cough in Union township, measles in Anderson township and scarlet fever in Orange township, caused an unusual
large number of absent pupils during the month, but these of course were legal absences.

Miss Sparks, in her report from October 15 to November 15, shows
that there was a total enrollment of 2,866 in all of the schools. The enrollment increased two during the month on account of pupils moving
into the county from out of the state
and 29 moved in from other districts.

This gain was offset by 2 pupils
moving outside of the state, and 35
transferred to some other district.
One child was given an employment permit, and two were given temporary permits to be kept out of school.

On account of the epidemics, a total of 1,908.3 days were lost in the schools, which time also includes the number of minutes lost by pupils
being tardy.

Of these 1,908 days, 1,806 days
were excused by legal excuses,
which left only 102 days unexcused.
Miss Sparks during the past month
visited 24 homes and 24 visits to schools and two visits to factories.

NEW OBSTACLE ARISES

Paris, Nov. 19.—A new obstacle
arose in Franco-British relations
today when the French cabinet refused to accept the terms of the note

WAIVE ARRAIGNMENT

Vincennes, Ind., Nov. 19.—Theodore Armstrong and William Jones, alleged slayers of Charles Wright,
Edwardport bank cashier, waived
arraignment today when taken before Judge Coulter, on grand jury indictment, charging them with first degree murder.

WATSON HAD NO PART IN CONTRACT

Assistant U. S. District Attorney
Absolves Him of Blame in Veter-

O. I. Keogel Volunteers Information
Regarding Alleged Scandal in Floor Wax Contract

Senator James E. Watson of this city was absolved of any blame in connection with the awarding of a contract for floor wax to be used in
U. S. veterans bureau hospitals,
when a witness at the senate investigation of the bureau's activities,
at Washington, said that the Hoosier
senator had nothing to do with making the contract and that it "is infamous for his name to be mentioned
in the matter in any way."

In view of the fact that the contract went to the Continental Chemical Corporation of Katseka, Ill., of which John Owens, former campaign manager of Sen. Watson, is an officer, political enemies of Sen. Watson sought to make political capital out
of it.

Though the Senate committee apparently has attached little importance to it, an investigator for the
bureau, a witness several days ago,
said he had heard the suggestion
made that Charles R. Cramer, general counsel for the bureau, who has since committed suicide, had arranged for the large order to Owens
because he hoped Owens might obtain Senator Watson's recommendation that he, Cramer, become assistant secretary of war. The investigator,
however, did not suggest that Watson ever interested himself in behalf of Cramer, or had anything to do with the contract which Owens obtained.

Otto I. Keogel assistant U. S.
attorney for the District of Columbia,
testifying Saturday afternoon, volunteers the information that Sen.
Watson was not connected with the transaction.

NOVEMBER TERM OF COURT OPENS

Among New Cases Docketed is Suit
by Milroy Bank Against A. T.
Junken And Mortgage Company

TWO BOYS TO BE ARRAIGNED

Youths Arrested For Taking Property Belonging to Ray Sharp—
Several Cases Are Dismissed

The November term of court was opened this morning when several
court matters were taken up, including the dismissal of a few cases, and preparations were outlined for the new term.

The jury, which was drawn last week, has been notified to report for service in the morning, when the case of Marion Boes and Catherine
D. Boes against Robert H. Parker
is scheduled for trial. The case is a complaint for possession and for damages, and involves landlord and tenant.

Among the new cases docketed in court today, the Milroy Bank is plaintiff against Alvah T. Junken and the Hawkins Mortgage Company of Jay County. The demand is for $4,000. The complaint alleges that the defendant Junken gave the Hawkins Mortgage company his note and
the note was afterwards assumed by
the bank, which is now seeking to collect on it.

Two youths, Morris Smith, age 15,
and Myron Jones, will be arraigned
in court in the morning, following
their arrest Saturday by Patrolman
Lakin, who charges them with taking property belonging to Ray Sharp.
In the case of Ollie Fry against Leslie Hinchman, administrator of the estate of Sanford Hinchman, a claim for $2,030, Judge John W.
Craig of Greensburg has been appointed special judge, succeeding Judge Fred Gause of Newcastle, who relinquished jurisdiction on account
of his appointment recently to the supreme court bench.

The following cases were all dismissed this morning by the plaintiffs
and the costs paid:

Fred Hillgross against Robert
Laughlin, to dissolve partnership.
J. B. Colt Company against Mary
Shoppelle, administrator of the estate of Rex Shoppelle, a claim for $289.55.

Bessie M. Mazingo against Frank
B. Mazingo, divorce.

Fred Mohler against Harry Austin suit for labor and material demanding $521.30.

GOV. WALTON IS OUSTED BY SENATE

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 19—
Governor Walton was ousted from office today by vote of the Oklahoma
senate.

The impeachment trial, which started November 8, came to an end
when the senate found Walton guilty
on article 19 of the 22 charges
presented by the house board of managers.

This was sufficient to remove him from office, the vote on the other articles being unnecessary.

Immediately after the court judgment was rendered, Walton's counsel entered a protest and filed a motion for a new trial. The vote was unanimous, with one senator absent.

EDUCATION IS SERMON THEME

American Education Week is Ush-
ered in Sunday With Pastors Discussing Subject in Pulpits

MEETINGS ALL OVER COUNTY

Will Be Held This Week in Every Community in Which There is a School House

Sermons on education in Rush
county pulpits Sunday ushered in the county-wide observance of American Education Week which got under way today.

Meetings have been arranged for every community in the county in which there is a school and members
of the Rushville Rotary and Kiwanis clubs will carry the message throughout the county.

The Rev. Gibson Wilson spoke on
"Education and Religion" at the First Presbyterian church Sunday and the Rev. R. W. Sage made this the subject of his morning sermon at the
First Baptist church. The Rev. H. W.
Hargett used the same theme in his morning sermon at St. Paul's church.
A brief resume of the sermons in Rushville pulpits Sunday follow:

At First Presbyterian

"Education and religion," said the
Rev. Gibson Wilson, speaking on the text, 2nd Tim. 2:15, "are most closely related. To have one without the other is to go through life with only one hand. For this reason we prefer
that our young men and women be trained in a church school because it is interested in both education and religion."

"Samuel could never have become the great leader that he was if he had had only the one qualification,
without the other. But because of his equipment, he became a leader,
both in church and state."

The pastor pointed out that it was
the temple of religion that furnished
the first great leaders.

"It is the church," he continued,
"that is sending preachers and
teachers to banish the darkness of
heathenism, to curb their passions,
heal their woes and bring order out of disorder and civilization out of chaos."

"You can't separate education and religion. Any calling that put religion
in an inferior place is disastrous to
the individual and all his interests."

"We are to be reformers, but we must first be transformed ourselves.
Education is a dangerous thing un-

Missionary Chautauqua Opens

In keeping with the thought of
American Education Week, the Rev.
R. W. Sage, pastor of the First Baptist church, spoke at the morning service on "Getting a Christian Education."

At the evening service a good size
crowd greeted Dr. William Dring, of Assam, Dr. Dring, who during the past thirty-three years has spent three terms of service among the
head-hunting tribes of Assam,
brought an exceedingly interesting
address concerning his work there.
He will speak again on Thursday night in connection with the Missionary Chautauqua.

Tonight will open the Missionary
Chautauqua which will run for five nights. Dr. C. M. Dismore, who was to speak tonight, will not be present

BURNS FATAL TO A CHILD AT CARTHAGE

Dorothy Louise McCorkle, Age 7,
Suffers Injuries While Playing
Around a Bonfire

Big Four Agent And Operator, Attracted by Screams, Unable to Catch Fleeing Child

Pain She Suffered—Funeral Tuesday Morning at 10

Dorothy Louise McCorkle, 7 year-
old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lon
McCorkle of Carthage, was fatally
burned while playing with fire Saturday afternoon, and died from the burns Saturday night at 8:30 o'- clock.

The child, in company with several other children, was playing around a bonfire, near the Big Four railroad station, and in some manner that is not known, the child's clothing
caught fire, and she started to run.

The children began to scream, and
attracted the attention of B. L. Tetrick, station agent, and Mr. Laird,
the operator, who ran to the child's assistance.

Her clothing was in flames, and leaping high around her body, and the men were unable to stop her until she had collapsed from the effects of the fumes. Her running fed the flames and caused the fire to spread
more rapidly.

Physicians were summoned, but on account of the charred condition of
her body, little hope was maintained
for her recovery and death resulted at 8:30 o'clock Saturday night. The condition of her body was mute evidence of the horrible pain the child
suffered. The accident happened shortly after one o'clock in the afternoon.

The victim of the accident was born August 4, 1916 and was said to be an exceptionally bright little girl
by all who knew her.

Besides her parents, she is survived by three brothers, Howard,
Wilbur and Earl, and three sisters,
Viola, Helen and Esther. Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James McCorkle, and grandmother, Mrs. Mary
Hart of Indianapolis, also survive.

The funeral services will be held Tuesday morning at ten o'clock at the East Street Christian church in Carthage, and burial will be made in the cemetery north of Carthage.

Remains of Former Rushville Woman
Brought to Home of Her Brother,
M. V. Spivey

FUNERAL TUESDAY, 2 P. M.

Mrs. Luella J. Mauzy, age 72
years, wife of William H. Mauzy, formerly of this city and Indianapolis, died Sunday morning at five o'clock at the family home near Westport, and her remains were brought to this city this afternoon,
and taken to the home of her brother,
Martin V. Spivey, 715 North
Jackson street.

The deceased had been ill for several months, suffering with dropsy.
Besides the husband, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. O. D. Wells of Indianapolis, and four brothers. The brothers are J. Dolph Spivey of Bluff-
ton, John Spivey of Indianapolis,
and Dan L. and Martin V. Spivey
of this city.

Funeral services will be conducted Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at the Spivey residence in this city, in charge of the Rev. L. E. Brown, and burial will be made in East Hill
cemetery. Friends may call tonight
or Tuesday to view the remains.

The deceased was widely known in Rushville and throughout the county,
and her death proved to be a shock
to all who knew her.

iness was paralyzed several years ago by a disastrous fire.

He, however, after the fire, continued in the business on a smaller scale, but was forced to quit three years ago on account of failing health.

Mr. Lee was elected councilman on the Republican ticket from his ward, and served the term under the late Mayor A. B. Irvin, and prior to that had served under C. L. Bebout, mayor, having been appointed to fill out the unexpired term of Councilman McGinnis.

Mr. Lee, during the past three years, had put up an uphill battle with cancer, and his condition during the past seven or eight weeks was unbearable.

He is survived by the widow, and two children, Dr. J. M. Lee of this city and Mrs. Bessie VanOsdel of Indianapolis. He also is survived by a twin-brother, Edwin B. Lee of this city, and a brother, James Lee, and a sister, Mrs. Lana Murphy, both of California.

The funeral services will be held at the late residence Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock in charge of the Rev. L. E. Brown, and burial will be made in East Hill cemetery.

Word Received of Death of Mrs. Julia Binford at Age of 53 Years in Straughens

FUNERAL HELD AT HOPEWELL

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Julia Binford, daughter of Enos and Caroline Pickering, which occurred last Wednesday at her home in Straughens at the age of 53 years, two months and five days.

She had been in failing health since February, but suffered a stroke of apoplexy on Wednesday morning, November 14, and died at three o'clock in the afternoon. She was the wife of Benjamin O. Binford, who preceded her in death nine years ago. She is survived by two daughters, Marietta and Ruby; three sisters, Mrs. Henry Sims of Flatrock, Mrs. Jesse Reddick and Mrs. Al McDaniel of Carthage and four brothers, Charles Pickering of Edinburg, Otto and Alton Henley of Fairmount and Claude Henley of Hartford City.

The funeral services were held at the Friends church at Hopewell Friday afternoon, in charge of the Rev. Emerson Cloyd of Cambridge City, Ind., and burial was in the cemetery near the church. Mrs. Binford was an active member of this church.

Those attending the funeral from a distance were Henry Sims and family and sister of Flatrock, Charles Pickering of Edinburg, Claude Henley and family of Hartford City, Alton Henley and family and Otto Henley of Fairmount, Mrs. Linnie Glays, Howard Glays, Mrs. Lizzie Binford, Mrs. Ida Gilbert of Richmond, Irvin Binford and son Kenneth of Charlottesville, Mr. and Mrs. Clarkson Swain, Mr. and Mrs. Embree Swain and Mr. and Mrs. Charley Swain of Greensboro, Dr. Mary Bruner of Greenfield, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson and Mrs.

mes, Donnie Hillgoss, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Krammes and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Krammes, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Krammes, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lowden and Mr. and Mrs. Will Goddard.

Worthy And Well Qualified

There are some Senators who criticize the appointment of former Senator Kellogg as ambassador to Great Britain who would be very much embarrassed if they were called upon to name some one themselves who could and would accept. Under the American plan of maintaining our diplomatic service, the holder of the ambassadorship must be a man of independent means, for his salary will pay but a small part of his expenses. Moreover, if he is to command respect among the diplomats of other nations, he must be familiar with diplomatic history and diplomatic procedure. He must have a knowledge of world affairs sufficient to enable him to understand a question of international law when stated to him. He must be qualified to deliver an address at a gathering of literary leaders, of historians, or of business men. Senator Kellogg fills all these requirements. Now won't the critics of Senator Kellogg be good enough to go to the Court of St. James. Will they support legislation which provides an appropriation sufficient to cover all the necessary expenses of an ambassador to Great Britain?

Great Britain Sets Example

The agreement for British repayment of silver borrowed from the American treasury during the war extended into 1924, but Great Britain has anticipated the debt by recently making the final payment and wiping out the whole obligation of over $122,000,000. This leaves the way clear for curing the debt of $4,660,000,000 covered by the recent refunding agreement. When that agreement was made it was predicted that Great Britain would make payments before they came due, and thus avail herself of the lower interest rates of the first ten years. The British treatment of the whole loan is likely to prove an object lesson to other debtor governments in efficient financial management, as well as in honest dealing.

LEADERS OF 11,000,000 ORGANIZED WOMEN
URGE OBSERVANCE OF GOLDEN RULE DAY

LEADERS of National Women's organizations, representing approximately 11,000,000 organized American women, in a recent session in New York City endorsed the idea of an International Golden Rule Day to be observed all over the world on Sunday, December 2nd, with the object of providing food for the orphans of the Near East, and issued an appeal to the women of the nation to help make the day a success.

Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, former President of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, has addressed a letter to the head of every woman's organization in the country explaining the object and scope of Golden Rule Day and urging nation-wide observance of it.

The Resolutions Committee, consisting of Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Mrs. Thomas G. Winter and Miss Mary Emma Woolley, presented the following resolution which was unanimously adopted:

"RESOLVED, That the Woman's Committee on Near East Relief, pledge its active co-operation to the observance of International Golden Rule Sunday, December 2nd, as a day of self-denial for the purpose of aiding the 100,000 orphans now removed from the jurisdiction of the Turkish Government and under the protection of the Near East Relief.

"RESOLVED, further, that we will urge the co-operation of all women's organizations throughout the country in the observance of this day."

The idea of International Golden Rule Day was originated by the International Near East Association in session at Geneva, Switzerland, last summer as a means of uniting the whole Christian thinking world in the work of caring for and feeding the nationless orphans in the Near East. Families in fourteen different nations will observe the day simultaneously by foregoing their usual more or less elaborate Sunday dinner and eating instead a meal approximately the same as that served every day in the Near East Relief orphanages, and contributing the difference in the cost of the two menus to the support of the orphans.

In America the movement is sponsored by the Near East Relief and in other nations by similar organizations and societies working towards the same ends. Details of the correct sort of food to be served for Golden Rule Day dinner and other information concerning it can be had by writing to the National Headquarters of the Near East Relief, 151 Fifth Avenue, New York City, or to the nearest state office.

Many prominent European women, including the Queen of Greece, Baroness Schaffalitzky of Denmark, Baroness Sigrid Kurck of Sweden, and Miss Alice Macarck, daughter of the President of Czechoslovakia, have pledged themselves to observe Golden Rule Day and to further its wide observance in their own countries.

Besides Mrs. Pennybacker as Chairman, other members of the Committee, shown in the picture above, who appeal for the support of their various organizations in making Golden Rule Day a success, are Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Honorary President of the International Suffrage Alliance; Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, President of the

WEBB TROUNCES THE

Opposition For The Coaches

The business men's class in gym training will no doubt interest a great many. Judge Sparks has put his order in for an entire outfit, and we understand will play center on a team captained by Vern Norris.

WHAT DO YOU DO WITH YOURSELF, BOBBY?

Lucky thing for Frankfort that they don't play basketball on Sunday, or else they would be clear out of the race, with the blue laws enforced in that city.

With Newcastle having two first teams and two second teams in the field this year, Markin 'em up has so much to do that his sport page looks like the Chicago Tribune. You ought to let the girls organize a few teams, and get the faculty lined up in uniforms, and then you would be well supplied with basketball.

Say, Markin 'em up, you ought to see our coaches play. We got a hefty lunch composed of all high school coaches in Rush county, and they are real stars.

"From the Press Box" the peppy column in the Kokomo Tribune, is now being received daily by Hittin' 'em, and we can keep in close touch with what is going on in that section. "Hoosier Courtship", appearing in the Richmond Palladium, has made his appearance again this season.

"WHERE'S THE TEA, OSWALD?" Newcastle, who was making arrangements for their pink tea reception with Hagerstown last Friday night, didn't have much need for tea. Hagerstown won, 41 to 24.

One of the other Newcastle teams counted a victory over Middletown, 18 to 13. Newcastle is anxious for Rushville on November 30, and Hittin' 'em wouldn't be a bit surprised to see Newcastle combine those teams for that game.

GANGWAY FOR THE COLTS

"Dear Hittin' 'em:—Have you got any small sized stalls in that county stable, The R. H. S. Colts want a place for the winter. Yours, Jimmie."

Use the Radio, the Next Time, George

Casual Comment, Purdue's column in The Vincennes Sun, failed to mention the Bedford-Vincennes game until Monday. It took him a long time to get back home—Rushville Republican.

Wrong again. Bedford's almost complete isolation from civilization after curfew at night was the cause. Said report of the game went out of Bedford at midnight, was transferred at Linedale west to Terre Haute and thence south, arriving here at 1 p. m. Saturday. Failing to get in the mail edition, Rushville didn't get the story until Monday's paper.

—Vincennes Sun

Spiceland Academy next, gang! Make 'em like it. Let's get back in the win column once more.

Another Joiner in Our Names is Names Club

"Bobby Hot Dog stops to comment on the names of some of the backguards in the state and mentions Dempsey, a knockout, Rose, a thorn in somebody's side; Death, of Veversburg, and Leach, who sticks to his forward. Wish Bobby could tell us the name of our backguard," says Casual Comment of Vincennes. What the bunch of players need, is the center on the Baena Vista team—his name is Collin, Hittin' 'em would suggest that he would be a good finish for the team.

Headline in Shelbyville paper Friday night:

EXPECT 200 BOOSTERS AT MOORESVILLE GAME
Shelby found out that it takes players to win, and not boosters.

DO YOUR DUTY, MR. HISAA!

"We are certainly surprised at the sportsmanship displayed by the Franklin fans in their own back yard during last Friday's game. Three years of state championship must have ruined them, for they displayed poor quality of sportsmanship," says "Time Out" in the Frankfort Times.

GEE, WE ARE ON ONE BIG TEN LIST, AT LEAST (Vincennes Sun)

Who has the nerve to pick a Big Ten?—Hot Dog.

Heck: Who's skeered? Here goes:

5. Hittin' 'Em.
6. Standing By.

DID THEY EVER WIN ONE?
Fifteen years ago, according to files we dug up, Shelbyville was playing basketball. The headline in the paper says that "Shelbyville is to have a Hummer!" We can't find any record though that indicates that Shelbyville won the state championship back in 1908.

WAIT TILL THEY START BARNSTORMING

George says in his Casual Comment column, down at Vincennes:

Glenwood somewhere over in Rush county with a 1920 population of 324 is training its basketball team in a barn. They ought to have a stable combination, we should say.

ARLINGTON IN ANOTHER SCORELESS TIE SUNDAY

Athletic Club Had Ball on Opponent's Four Yard Line on Second Down When Time Was Called

HOLD SOUTHEASTERS TO TIE

It was Arlington's ball, 2nd down and 4 yards to go when time was called in the football game at Arlington yesterday between the Southeasterns of Indianapolis and the Arlington Athletic club, the game ending in a scoreless tie. The teams were evenly matched in weight and both played hard and clean throughout the entire game. The Southeastern team was as clean playing team as ever played at Arlington, there being no complaints of any kind.

During the first half neither team could gain to any advantage, both being held for downs frequently and forced to punt. The Southeasterns had the ball on Arlington's ten yard line once in the 2nd quarter by blocking an Arlington punt, but were held in their tracks when they threatened to score. It was in the 4th quarter when the tide began to turn in Arlington's favor after the Southeasterns kicked to Arlington's 20 yard line, then Clarence Northam, playing his first game this year, went in at half and made several long runs, and Wicker going through the line with good gains. The next home game will be played on Thanksgiving day when the Brookside Cubs return for a game.

WEBB REPEATS ON SATURDAY NIGHT

Journeys Down to Burney And Wins Handily, 33 to 21, After Defeating Manila Friday

GAME IS UNUSUALLY ROUGH

The Webb high school, after trouncing Manila here Friday night, journeyed down to Burney Saturday night and won out from the team of that place in a roughly contested game, by the score of 33 to 21. The score at the end of the first half was 19 to 12, and the local team had the best of the game at all stages.

According to reports, the game was unusually rough. Webb tackles Raleigh here Wednesday night and a real game is expected. The line-up and summary.

NEW SALEM DEFEATS ORANGE

New Salem high school defeated Orange Friday night 15 to 11 at New Salem with three substitutes in the line-up for the winners. W. Wilson, F. Wilson and King were off, and their substitutes played good ball and held Orange in check.

Alfalfa is Profitable

Warsaw, Ind., Nov. 19—Alfalfa this year proved to be one of the most profitable crops of Kosciusko county farmers, according to T. A. Parker, county agricultural agent.

Despite the increase in acreage in this section during the last three years, there is this fall practically no baled alfalfa for sale, farmers themselves using all that they have produced.

Loss alfalfa is selling at from $20 to $25 a ton in the mow. This price means from $25 to $30 a ton delivered.

Kokomo—"I'm making it for my own use," Charles Pasqual told officers who raided his place in search of liquor. They found 250 gallons of wine and a hoghead of mash.

After Heavyweight Crown

(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Nov. 19—Jack Renault, the Canadian heavyweight, wants to fight Jack Dempsey for the world's championship, and if he has an even break in luck, he may get a shot at the title.

Renault is, at the present time, anything but the logical contender for Dempsey's crown, but he will make himself one because he is going about it the right way.

After knocking out Floyd Johnson, Renault said he was willing to fight Harry Wills, Tom Gibbons and Luis Firpo to prove his right to meet Dempsey.

Leo Flynn, Renault's manager, is one of the shrewdest managers in the business and he is also one of its more fluent orators. Flynn has done a lot of talking in advancing the claims of other heavyweights, but he seems to be sincere in his willingness to put Renault through the real test.

Renault now is not a great fighter. He may develop into one because he cannot help but improve himself by fighting top-notchers. The Canadian, in his present form, seems only to lack the aggressive spirit of a natural fighter. It is said of him that he is a "front runner," but he showed no signs of being timid in the Johnson fight.

When allowed to fight his own way or when he can force his opponent to fight his way, Renault is a good fighter. He can box and he can hit. His punching is accurate and well timed, even if it does lack the power of Dempsey, Gibbons and Wills.

Renault's worst fault lies in his tendency toward too much precaution. He prefers to play safe instead of charging in aggressively when he gets an opening. Had he been a great fighter he would have stopped Johnson many rounds before the fifteenth. He passed up many opportunities because he preferred to stay back and counter Johnson when he tore into him.

He cannot do that against Gibbons, Wills or Firpo. Only a rushing, charging fighter of the Dempsey type will beat the three leading contenders for the title.

Renault would not last five rounds if he tried to stand back and smack Gibbons, Wills or Firpo when they came into him. One good crack from any one of them would remove all chances for Renault to return a punch.

One thing is certain, and it will be a big help to him, Renault will not be overmatched. If Leo Flynn wants to match Renault with Gibbons, Wills and Firpo, it is a cinch that Flynn believes in his fighter. Flynn never will knock over a big money prospect for a little ready dough.

Floyd Johnson was one of the most promising young heavyweights to come up in four years, but he is clear out of the class now because he was overmatched in every one of his fights. He had nothing but courage, and a stout heart isn't the factor now that it was in days of Bat Nelson.

The Younger Generation

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 19—When six boys of fifteen and sixteen years of age were brought into juvenile court here in one week for intoxication, officials of the court admitted it was about time for some of the parents of the city to step in and see what was becoming of the younger generation.

"It is very unusual the way these boys were brought in at once," said Miss Isabella Somerville, head probation officer. "But it is time to give a little serious thought to the situation when boys hardly out of knee pants can get intoxicated."

One young tippler, it was revealed, kept a half pint of white mule brandy under a rosebush across the street from his home and went over now and then to have a clandestine nip when his parents were not watching.

Several of the boys said they found their supply hidden away by bootleggers.

After All Other Methods Failed
Chiropractic Adjustments
Brought Life to Paralyzed Limbs

Expression of a thankful mother, she says: Our son, Le Roy Wolfe, aged six years, was paralyzed from the hips down, and could not walk or use his lower limbs.

His health was poor and the medical doctors did not give him any relief, so we tried J. M. Starr, chiropractor, who gave him chiropractic spinal adjustments.

We could see an improvement from the very first adjustment. He was completely restored to health and regained the use of his limbs, the paralytic condition having entirely left him.

We are very thankful for this health restoring science and are read chiropractic boosters. Signed: Mrs. Erna Wolfe, 1602 West First street, Marion, Ind.

No condition is utterly hopeless, and Chiropractic has proved effective where many other methods have failed.

owing to another engagement. His substitute will be the Rev. George C. Chandler of Indianapolis, who will speak on "Evangelism." Four other speakers will appear during the week, speaking on various phases of the church's activity.

These services are open to the general public and a cordial invitation is extended.

Education and Religion

"The Literature of Power" was the subject of the discourse the Rev. H. W. Hargett, pastor of the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church delivered at the assembly room of the court house Sunday morning. He took his text from First Timothy, fourth chapter, 13 and 14 verses, "Give heed to reading. Neglect not the gift that is in thee." He said in part:

Ideas and emotions are the moving forces of humanity. The world moves forward or backward, upward or downward because of what men think and feel. Education deals chiefly with the intellect, religion with the heart. Both are essential for the development of a full and efficient life. The education that aims only at filling the boy or girl for a job is very imperfect. It is but an adjunct of the shop or farm or office. The true goal of education must be the deepening and enriching of the whole life. That goal can only be reached by the aid of religion that brings the pupil into touch with God.

One purpose of all education should be to cultivate in the pupil a love for the literature of power. There is a place for the literature, that ministers to our pleasure, that brings rest and recreation, but our primary need is for dynamic spiritual driving power for life and for the work of life. The literature of power is characterized by vision and inspiration.

By vision I mean that faculty by which beyond the immediate and outward show of things we can discern their real worth. "Where there is no vision, the people perish." They become the slaves of the material. They have no sure perception of the eternal verities, spinning through the vesture of time and circumstance; they have no eye for the goings of God in common days among common things. The best work of the world is always the result of the vision of that which may be. The books which draw us out of our littleness into God's vastness should have a large place in our reading.

Inspiration characterizes the literature of power. It calls forth the deepest and best within us. Maeterlinck maintains in his "Treasure of the Humble" that our most real life is not the conscious life but the unconscious life that lies under it. He is right. The part that every man knows of himself is small compared with the part that he does not know. The average man who goes daily to his work, reads the papers, maintains his family and is a decent citizen, has in him powers and capacities of which he is not aware. The society woman who flatters among the superficialities, who is interested chiefly in "what shall we eat and drink and where withal shall we be clothed" and how will it look when we have it on, has depths and resources and is capable of a fuller life than she has yet dreamed. The literature of power will set free the soul.

It will call for the thrilling inner powers, it will develop larger thought wider sympathy, nobler charity and above all it helps us to open our souls to the divine life. Among the books of power, the Bible stands supreme. In it we find the vision of life's possibilities and the inspiration needed to bring life to its fullness and power here on earth and to its fadless inheritance hereafter.

Religious Reformers

At the Main Street Christian church, the pastor delivered the last of his sermons on the "Religious Reformers," the address of the morn-

—and somehow gifts you have made have an added appeal to the one who receives them. There's an indication of something more than just a desire to select something some one likes or needs. Our Art Needlework Section is just brimming over with fascinating ideas and suggestions.

You will find here a complete line of high quality stamped merchandise—all new patterns—made on linen finish material. We invite comparison of quality, patterns and prices.

Among the stamped pieces are pillow cases, already hemstitched, of linen finished tubing; 45 inch table covers, buffet sets, tea pot holders, 5 piece luncheon sets, laundry bags, napkin holders, double oven mitts, card table covers, napkins to match sets. Particularly attractive for the little folks are cunning doll tea sets, buffet sets and silver holders containing small knives, forks and spoons.

Think of the things you can make for the home, such as table runners, fancy pillows and lamp shades, and for these the assortments are almost unlimited of beautiful silks, tapestries, crashes and linens. Such pretty things can always be contrived from ribbons and there are such gorgeous ones here. Innumerable shades of yarns for sweaters—and everything to make up for the wee tot.

We present the life stories of these men for information and inspiration and not to exalt them; as the defenders of the faith and not its founders. Thomas Campbell, the father of Alexander, was born in County Down, Ireland, in 1763, and the son in County Antrim, 1788. The father came to America in 1807, the son and family following in 1809. The liberality of the father towards members of other communions caused charges to be made against him and though he was not convinced yet, the vote of censure caused him and his friends to start a new religious movement with which the son became identified and the leading spirit that has grown from a few feeble people to nearly one and one half millions of followers and a recognized power in the religious world.

At the evening hour the subject was "Duties and Demands of the Divine" as a stumbling block to many in living, and becoming Christians, the sum total being presented in Ecc, 12, 13 and 14, the conclusion of the whole matter being to fear God and keep his commandments, to do justly, love mercy and walk humbly before God as presented by Micah, 6:8, the fear of God, obedience to Him as the whole duty Godward, justice and mercy towards our fellow men as being all of the law and prophets.

Christ's Present Day Methods

The morning sermon in the United Presbyterian church, delivered by the pastor, the Rev. E. G. McKibben, was based on the text "For the Son of Man come to seek and the Son that which was lost," Luke 19:10. The outline was as follows:

Many sidelights are given on the purpose of His Mission, but there are several direct statements made as follows, for judgment He came into the world; He came to bear witness until the truth; He came to confer life; He came to destroy the works of the devil; He came to set up a Kingdom; the text says He came to seek and to save that which was lost.

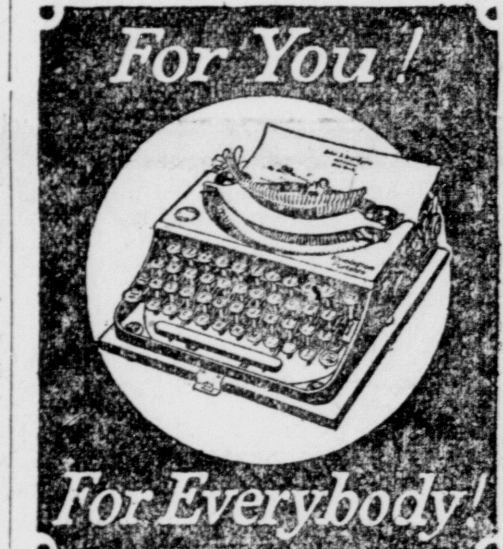

The world was lost, the Old Testament church was lost, individual souls were lost, and our Lord spent His life seeking lost souls. No one was so sick, but he healed him; No one was so sinful or depraved, but he was able and willing to save. His invitations contain such words as "all", and "everyone" and "whosoever".

His present day methods were strongly emphasized by the pastor. He works through parents in the home. As the home goes so goes the church, the community and the state. Nothing can take the place of home training. When a little pink and white bundle of humanity is placed in the parental arms, an obligation also comes "To pray with it and for it, to teach it of its lost conditions by nature, and to lead it to the Saviour." "The promise is to you and to your children." "Train up a child in the way it should go and when it is old it will not depart from it."

He works through Sabbath school

teachers, preaching of the word, and personal contact of the saved with the lost.

In closing the pastor said: Don't look for perfection in the church. It is a spiritual sanitarium where men and women saved by grace, recover from spiritual disease. In it they grow and wax strong in the faith. In it they cooperate with their Lord in seeking to save the lost.

THE OLD HOME TOWN By StanleyMOVIES*Harold Lloyd at Princess

Harold Lloyd opened a three-day engagement in "Safety Last" at the Princess today. It is recognized as the best picture he ever made and has more thrills per foot than any ever produced. Most of "locations" are twelve stories above the street level where the gymnastic movie star scales the walls of a building and hangs by the hands of the clock.

"The Silent Command"

"The Silent Command," a William Fox production, opened at the Mystic today for two days. It has thrills galore and powerful, pulsating, dramatic action. It is a sea story in which a ship wreck, realistic beyond belief, is the feature. A love intrigue figures in the plot and adds deep interest to the story.

At Castle Today Only

When a more than appealing love story of two handsome young people is woven into a plot of mystery and adventure in the South Seas, the resulting photoplay seems certain to prove fine entertainment. That is the case with "The Ragged Edge," based on Harold MacGrath's novel, which Distinctive Pictures Corporation has used as a vehicle for Alfred Lunt and Mimi Palmeri-two new stars. The picture will be seen today only at the Castle.

Distinctive Pictures Corporation has given us a story which moves forward swiftly, with never a slackening of pace or interest. Forrest

Halsey made the screen adaption and Harmon Weight directed, the picture, which has countless beautiful scenes.

Tearing through a wire fence, the big machine—a five-passenger Lincoln—careened down the embankment and turned over twice before it reached the bottomland twenty feet below.

The four boys who escaped gave their names as James N. Currin, William Neirouter, Charles Geran and Thomas E. Rafferty.

Rafferty, who was more inclined to talk than the others, told the coroner, Dr. John M. Lee, that he and Glaser were thrown out of the automobile, and that on its second turn, the machine caught Glaser underneath, breaking his neck, crushing his chest and the right side of his face.

The boys testified that they attended a social in Cincinnati Saturday night and decided to drive to Indianapolis early Sunday, to visit some of Glaser's relatives, who lived in a town near Indianapolis.

The accident happened on the slope of the hill just east of the bridge outside Arlington. Glaser's body was taken into Frank Offutt's home, which was just across the road, and the four boys were taken to the home of Mrs. A. G. Shauck where they were given something to eat.

They were brought to Rushville by the coroner and later taken in charge by Mrs. Ed Crosby. The boys, none of whom appeared to be over 19 years of age, said they were members of the Catholic church and members of the Knights of Columbus here interested themselves in their case and tried to prevail on at least two of them to remain here with the body of their late companion.

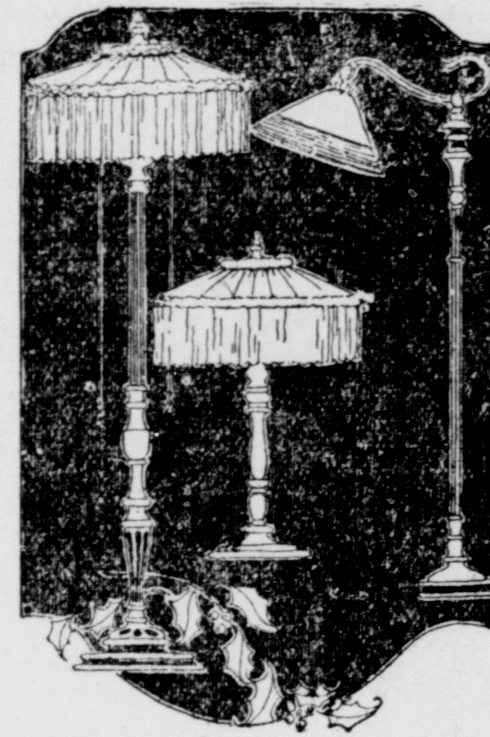

Bloomington—H. A. Axtell, who has a farm near here on which he has 1,000 turkeys, is taking no chances of having the Thanksgiving birds stolen. He has installed an electrical "turkey alarm" which he declares would give marauders an unpleasant surprise.

DRIVER OF STOLEN CAR KILLED IN ACCIDENT NEAR ARLINGTON

Crushed to Death Sunday, But

TRIES TO AVOID HITTING DOG

Police Notified Today By Cincinnati
Touring Automobile

cident Near Arlington

BULLETIN.

Carrin and Geran, who returned to Rushville this afternoon, admitted the automobile
which was wrecked near Arlington Sunday, and the driver
killed, had been taken for a
"joy" ride. They said arrangements had been made to pay for
the damage done to the machine.

A stolen automobile from Cincinnati was wrecked, when it struck a
dog just east of the bridge this side
and rolled down an embankment, and
Raymond Glaser, age nineteen, of Cincinnati, the driver, was instantly
killed, four other boys in the car,
all from Cincinnati, escaping serious
injury.

The first intimation that the automobile was stolen came this morning
when Cincinnati police notified the Rushville chief of police to hold the
automobile pending their arrival as it
had been stolen.

Glaser's companions aroused some
suspicion, however, because of their
hasty departure after the accident.
Two of them were urged to remain
here with the body pending the arrival of Glaser's father.

They asserted that the automobile
belonged to Glaser's uncle.

Glaser, 743 Wade street, Cincinnati,
arrived here Sunday afternoon, in an automobile, and arranged for the
& W. at seven o'clock.

According to testimony of the four
unsuccessful in trying to avoid hit-
ting a dog that ran out in the road
and Glaser cut it back to the right

Walter Priest Relieved of Approxi-

IN BLOCK AND HALF OF HOME

at John Madden's restaurant, 103
West First street, was held up and
robbed of approximately $50 in cash
and checks, receipts at the restaurant, near the Pennsylvania railroad
crossing in Jackson street, between Fourth and Fifth, at midnight Saturday night.

The holdup occurred one and a
he hurried home and notified the
has been found.

slender, and as wearing a handkerchief tied over his face, a yellow hunter's coat and a slouch hat.

The thief walked up behind Priest,
took hold of his collar and ordered
him to put his hands up. Priest
was not at first inclined to do so,
but his hands went up promptly when
he felt a revolver poked in his side.
His pockets were searched and he
out looking around.

and about $14 in checks. This
was money that had been taken in
after the bank closed. More than $20
had been paid out in meeting bills,
more.

E. A. LEE, FORMER COUNCILMAN, DIES

The Stomach Prove Fatal to Local Business Man

Council And Served Full Term
Under Mayor Irvin

Edward A. Lee, age 67 years, former city councilman and implement
dealer of this city, died at 7:30 o'-
clock Sunday night at his home, 331
West First street, death resulting
from a three years illness with cancer of the stomach.

The deceased was a native of this county, and was born just east of Arlington. Practically all of his life
was spent in this county, excepting
several years when he moved to Alabama with his parents, directly following the Civil War.

He returned to Rushville, when a young man, and married. In his early days he was a clerk in the Bohannan Brothers grocery store, and later was in the dry business and street
sprinkling business. As years went
by, he entered business on a large
scale and was the owner of an im-
ness continued on page two

Are Witnesses.

$155,000 "LOAN" PROBED

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 19.—
A Marion county grand jury today
heard four witnesses who were in
position to tell something very definite of the governor's transactions
in which the Discount and Deposit
Bank of Kentland figures.

Immediately after the grand jury
went into session, William Darroch,
life-long friend of McCray and re-
into the grand jury room.

of the state board of agriculture,
which, according to I. Newt Brown,
secretary-treasurer of the board,
declared was intended for deposit,
had ever reached the bank.

A short time later Amos Morris,
cashier of the bank; Thomas D.
Barr, state bank examiner, who went
over the books of the bank after a
receiver was appointed; and Riley
C. Adams, Indianapolis banker and
secretary of the committee in charge
of McCray's assets, entered the room.

culture held a second meeting to examine the "loan" of $155,000 to
the governor, today.

Measles, Scarlet Fever and Whoop-

Enrollment Increases Slightly During
Past Month Due to Pupils Moving
Into County

the county during the past month was
reported today by Miss Dorothy Sparks, county attendance officer, as
being satisfactory in every detail,
without legal excuses.

Union township, measles in Anderson township and scarlet fever in
large number of absent pupils during
legal absences.

Miss Sparks, in her report from October 15 to November 15, shows
that there was a total enrollment of
rollment increased two during the
month on account of pupils moving
into the county from out of the state
and 29 moved in from other districts.

This gain was offset by 2 pupils
moving outside of the state, and 35
transferred to some other district.
One child was given an employment
permit, and two were given temporary permits to be kept out of school.

schools, which time also includes the
number of minutes lost by pupils
being tardy.

were excused by legal excuses,
which left only 102 days unexcused.
Miss Sparks during the past month
visited 24 homes and 24 visits to
schools and two visits to factories.

Paris, Nov. 19.—A new obstacle
arose in Franco-British relations
today when the French cabinet refused to accept the terms of the note
dealing with the demand for expulsion of the crown prince.

Vincennes, Ind., Nov. 19.—Theodore Armstrong and William Jones,
alleged slayers of Charles Wright,
Edwardport bank cashier, waived
arraignment today when taken before Judge Coulter, on grand jury indictment, charging them with first degree murder.

TWO BICYCLES RECOVERED

Two bicycles, which were either stolen or misplaced, have been recovered by the police, and Orie Blackburn, police chief, is anxious to find the owners for them, if they will see him, and describe the two wheels.

Assistant U. S. District Attorney

O. I. Keogel Volunteers Information
Floor Wax Contract

Senator James E. Watson of this city was absolved of any blame in
contract for floor wax to be used in
U. S. veterans bureau hospitals,
when a witness at the senate investigation of the bureau's activities,
at Washington, said that the Hoosier
senator had nothing to do with making the contract and that it "is in-
in the matter in any way."

In view of the fact that the contract went to the Continental Chemical Corporation of Katsaka, Ill., of which John Owens, former campaign
manager of Sen. Watson, is an officer, political enemies of Sen. Watson sought to make political capital out
of it.

Though the Senate committee apparently has attached little importance to it, an investigator for the
bureau, a witness several days ago,
said he had heard the suggestion
made that Charles R. Cramer, general counsel for the bureau, who has
since committed suicide, had arranged for the large order to Owens
Senator Watson's recommendation that he, Cramer, become assistant secretary of war. The investigator,
however, did not suggest that Watson ever interested himself in behalf
of Cramer, or had anything to do
with the contract which Owens obtained.

Otto I. Keogel, assistant U. S.
attorney for the District of Columbia,
testifying Saturday afternoon, volunteers the information that Sen.
Watson was not connected with the
transaction.

NOVEMBER TERM OF COURT OPENS

TWO BOYS TO BE ARRAIGNED

Youths Arrested For Taking Property Belonging to Ray Sharp—
Several Cases Are Dismissed

The November term of court was
opened this morning when several
court matters were taken up, including the dismissal of a few cases, and
preparations were outlined for the
new term.

The jury, which was drawn last
service in the morning, when the
case of Marion Boes and Catherine
D. Boes against Robert H. Parker
is scheduled for trial. The case is a complaint for possession and for damages, and involves landlord and
tenant.

Among the new cases docketed in
court today, the Milroy Bank is
the Hawkins Mortgage Company of Jay County. The demand is for $4,000. The complaint alleges that
the defendant Junken gave the Haw-
the note was afterwards assumed by
the bank, which is now seeking to collect on it.

Two youths, Morris Smith, age 15,
and Myron Jones, will be arraigned
in court in the morning, following
their arrest Saturday by Patrolman
Lakin, who charges them with taking property belonging to Ray Sharp.

Leslie Hinchman, administrator of the estate of Sanford Hinchman, a
claim for $2,030, Judge John W.
Craig of Greensburg has been ap-
Judge Fred Gause of Neweastle, who relinquished jurisdiction on account
of his appointment recently to the supreme court bench.

The following cases were all dismissed this morning by the plaintiffs

Fred Hilligoss against Robert
Laughlin, to dissolve partnership.

J. B. Colt Company against Mary
Shoppelle, administrator of the estate of Rex Shoppelle, a claim for $289.55.

Bessie M. Mazingo against Frank
B. Mazingo, divorce.

Fred Mohler against Harry Austin suit for labor and material demanding $521.30.

GOV. WALTON IS OUSTED BY SENATE

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 19.— Governor Walton was ousted from office today by vote of the Oklahoma
senate.

The impeachment trial, which started November 8, came to an end
when the senate found Walton guilty
on article 19 of the 22 charges
presented by the house board of managers.

This was sufficient to remove him from office, the vote on the other articles being unnecessary.

Immediately after the court judgment was rendered, Walton's counsel entered a protest and filed a motion for a new trial. The vote was unanimous, with one senator absent.

America's Education Week is Ush-
ered in Sunday With Pastors Discussing Subject in Pulpits

MEETINGS ALL OVER COUNTY

Will Be Held This Week in Every
Community in Which There is a School House

Sermons on education in Rush
county pulpits Sunday ushered in the county-wide observance of American Education Week which got under way today.

Meetings have been arranged for
every community in the county in which there is a school and members
of the Rushville Rotary and Kiwanis
clubs will carry the message through-
out the county.

The Rev. Gibson Wilson spoke on
"Education and Religion" at the First Presbyterian church Sunday and the Rev. R. W. Sage made this the subject of his morning sermon at the
First Baptist church. The Rev. H. W.
Hargett used the same theme in his
A brief resume of the sermons in
Rushville pulpits Sunday follow:

At First Presbyterian

"Education and religion," said the
Rev. Gibson Wilson, speaking on the text, 2nd Tim. 2:15, "are most closely related. To have one without the other is to go through life with only
that our young men and women be
trained in a church school because it
religion.

"Samuel could never have become
the great leader that he was if he
had had only the one qualification,
without the other. But because of his equipment, he became a leader,
both in church and state."

The pastor pointed out that it was
the temple of religion that furnished
the first great leaders.

"It is the church," he continued,
"that is sending preachers and
teachers to banish the darkness of
heathenism, to curb their passions,
lead their woes and bring order out
of disorder and civilization out of
chaos."

"You can't separate education and religion. Any calling that put religion
in an inferior place is disastrous to
the individual and all his interests."

"We are to be reformers, but we
must first be transformed ourselves.
Education is a dangerous thing un-

Missionary Chautauqua Opens

American Education Week, the Rev.
R. W. Sage, pastor of the First Baptist church, spoke at the morning
cation."

At the evening service a good size
crowd greeted Dr. William Dring,
of Assam, Dr. Dring, who during the
past thirty-three years has spent
three terms of service among the
head-hunting tribes of Assam,
brought an exceedingly interesting
address concerning his work there.
He will speak again on Thursday
night in connection with the Missionary Chautauqua.

Tonight will open the Missionary
Chautauqua which will run for five nights. Dr. C. M. Dinsmore, who was to speak tonight, will not be present

BURNS FATAL TO A CHILD AT CARTHAGE

Dorothy Louise McCorkle, Age 7,
Suffers Injuries While Playing
Around a Bonfire

Big Four Agent And Operator, At-
tracted by Screams, Unable to Catch Fleeing Child

Pain She Suffered—Funeral Tues-

Dorothy Louise McCorkle, 7 year-
old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lon
McCorkle of Carthage, was fatally
burned while playing with fire Saturday afternoon, and died from the
clock.

The child, in company with several
other children, was playing around a
bonfire, near the Big Four railroad
station, and in some manner that is
not known, the child's clothing
caught fire, and she started to run.

The children began to scream, and
attracted the attention of B. L. Tet-
rick, station agent, and Mr. Laird,
the operator, who ran to the child's
assistance.

Her clothing was in flames, and
leaping high around her body, and
the men were unable to stop her until she had collapsed from the effects
of the fumes. Her running fed the flames and caused the fire to spread
more rapidly.

Physicians were summoned, but on account of the charred condition of
her body, little hope was maintained
for her recovery and death resulted
at 8:30 o'clock Saturday night. The condition of her body was mute evidence of the horrible pain the child
suffered. The accident happened
shortly after one o'clock in the afternoon.

The victim of the accident was born August 4, 1916 and was said to
be an exceptionally bright little girl
by all who knew her.

Besides her parents, she is survived by three brothers, Howard,
Wilbur and Earl, and three sisters,
Viola, Helen and Esther. Her grand-
parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McCorkle, and grandmother, Mrs. Mary
Hart of Indianapolis, also survive.

The funeral services will be held Tuesday morning at ten o'clock at
the East Street Christian church in Carthage, and burial will be made in
the cemetery north of Carthage.

Brought to Home of Her Brother,
M. V. Spivey

Mrs. Luella J. Mauzy, age 72
years, wife of William H. Mauzy, formerly of this city and Indianapolis, died Sunday morning at five o'clock at the family home near Westport, and her remains were
brought to this city this afternoon,
and taken to the home of her brother,
Martin V. Spivey, 715 North
Jackson street.

The deceased had been ill for several months, suffering with dropsy.
Besides the husband, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. O. D. Wells of Indianapolis, and four brothers. The
ton, John Spivey of Indianapolis,
and Dan L. and Martin V. Spivey
of this city.

Funeral services will be conducted
Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at the Spivey residence in this city, in charge of the Rev. L. E. Brown, and
burial will be made in East Hill
cemetery. Friends may call tonight
or Tuesday to view the remains.

The deceased was widely known in Rushville and throughout the county,
and her death proved to be a shock
to all who knew her.

ness was paralyzed several years ago by a disastrous fire.

He, however, after the fire, continued in the business on a smaller scale, but was forced to quit three years ago on account of failing health.

Mr. Lee was elected councilman on the Republican ticket from his ward, and served the term under the late Mayor A. B. Irvin, and prior to that had served under C. L. Bebout, mayor, having been appointed to fill out the unexpired term of Councilman McGinnis.

Mr. Lee, during the past three years, had put up an uphill battle with cancer, and his condition during the past seven or eight weeks was unbearable.

He is survived by the widow, and two children, Dr. J. M. Lee of this city and Mrs. Bessie VanOsdel of Indianapolis.

He also is survived by a twin-brother, Edwin B. Lee of this city, and a brother, James Lee, and a sister, Mrs. Luna Murphy, both of California.

The funeral services will be held at the late residence Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock in charge of the Rev. L. E. Brown, and burial will be made in East Hill cemetery.

Word Received of Death of Mrs. Julia Binford at Age of 53 Years in Straughens

FUNERAL HELD AT HOPEWELL

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Julia Binford, daughter of Enos and Caroline Pickering, which occurred last Wednesday at her home in Straughens at the age of 53 years, two months and five days.

She had been in failing health since February, but suffered a stroke of apoplexy on Wednesday morning, November 14, and died at three o'clock in the afternoon. She was the wife of Benjamin O. Binford, who preceded her in death nine years ago. She is survived by two daughters Marietta and Ruby; three sisters, Mrs. Henry Sims of Flatrock, Mrs. Jesse Reddick and Mrs. Al McDaniel of Carthage, and four brothers, Charles Pickering of Edinburg, Otto and Alton Henley of Fairmount and Claude Henley of Hartford City.

The funeral services were held at the Friends church at Hopewell Friday afternoon in charge of the Rev. Emerson Cloyd of Cambridge City, Ind., and burial was in the cemetery near the church. Mrs. Binford was an active member of this church.

Those attending the funeral from a distance were Henry Sims and family and sister of Flatrock, Charles Pickering of Edinburg, Claude Henley and family of Hartford City, Alton Henley and family and Otto Henley of Fairmount, Mrs. Linnie Glays, Howard Glays, Mrs. Lizzie Binford, Mrs. Ida Gilbert of Richmond, Irvin Binford and son Kenneth of Charlottesville, Mr. and Mrs. Clarkson Swain, Mr. and Mrs. Embree Swain and Mr. and Mrs. Charley Swain of Greensboro, Dr. Mary Bruner of Greenfield, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson and Mrs.

mes, Donnie Hillgoss, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Krammes and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Krammes, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Krammes, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lowden and Mr. and Mrs. Will Goddard.

PERSONAL SELF GOVERNMENT—He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.—Proverbs 25: 28.

Worthy And Well Qualified

There are some Senators who criticize the appointment of former Senator Kellogg as ambassador to Great Britain who would be very much embarrassed if they were called upon to name some one themselves who could and would accept. Under the American plan of maintaining our diplomatic service, the holder of the ambassadorship must be a man of independent means, for his salary will pay but a small part of his expenses. Moreover, if he is to command respect among the diplomats of other nations, he must be familiar with diplomatic history and diplomatic procedure. He must have a knowledge of world affairs sufficient to enable him to understand a question of international law when stated to him. He must be qualified to deliver an address at a gathering of literary leaders, of historians, or of business men. Senator Kellogg fills all these requirements. Now won't the critics of Senator Kellogg be good enough to go to the Court of St. James. Will they support legislation which provides an appropriation sufficient to cover all the necessary expenses of an ambassador to Great Britain?

Great Britain Sets Example

The agreement for British repayment of silver borrowed from the American treasury during the war extended into 1924, but Great Britain has anticipated the debt by recently making the final payment and wiping out the whole obligation of over $122,000,000. This leaves the way clear for caring for the debt of $3,500,000,000 covered by the recent refunding agreement. When that agreement was made it was predicted that Great Britain would make payments before they came due, and thus avail herself of the lower interest rates of the first ten years. The British treatment of the whole loan is likely to prove an object lesson to other debtor governments in efficient financial management, as well as in honest dealing.

LEADERS OF 11,000,000 ORGANIZED WOMEN
URGE OBSERVANCE OF GOLDEN RULE DAY

LEADERS of National Women's organizations, representing approximately 11,000,000 organized American women, in a recent session in New York City endorsed the idea of an International Golden Rule Day to be observed all over the world on Sunday, December 2nd, with the object of providing food for the orphans of the Near East, and issued an appeal to the women of the nation to help make the day a success.

Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, former President of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, has addressed a letter to the head of every woman's organization in the country explaining the object and scope of Golden Rule Day and urging nation-wide observance of it.

The Resolutions Committee, consisting of Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Mrs. Thomas G. Winter and Miss Mary Emma Woolley, presented the following resolution which was unanimously adopted:

"RESOLVED, That the Woman's Committee on Near East Relief, pledge its active co-operation to the observance of International Golden Rule Sunday, December 2nd, as a day of self-denial for the purpose of aiding the 1,000,000 orphans now removed from the jurisdiction of the Turkish Government and under the protection of the Near East Relief.

"RESOLVED, further, that we will urge the co-operation of all women's organizations throughout the country in the observance of this day."

The idea of International Golden Rule Day was originated by the International Near East Association in session at Geneva, Switzerland, last summer as a means of uniting the whole Christian thinking world in the work of caring for and feeding the nationless orphans in the Near East. Families in fourteen different nations will observe the day simultaneously by foregoing their usual more or less elaborate Sunday dinner and eating instead a meal approximately the same as that served every day in the Near East Relief orphanages, and contributing the difference in the cost of the two menus to the support of the orphans.

In America the movement is sponsored by the Near East Relief and in other nations by similar organizations and societies working towards the same ends. Details of the correct sort of food to be served for Golden Rule Day dinner and other information concerning it can be had by writing to the National Headquarters of the Near East Relief, 151 Fifth Avenue, New York City, or to the nearest state office.

Many prominent European women, including the Queen of Greece, Baroness Schaffelsky of Denmark, Baroness Sigrid Kurck of Sweden, and Miss Alice Masarik, daughter of the President of Czechoslovakia, have pledged themselves to observe Golden Rule Day and to further its wide observance in their own countries.

Besides Mrs. Pennybacker as Chairman, other members of the Committee, shown in the picture above, who appeal for the support of their various organizations in making Golden Rule Day a success, are Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Honorary President of the International Suffrage Alliance; Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, President of the Boole, Vice-President of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union; Mrs. John Booth, President of the New York State Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. John D. The business men's class in gym training will no doubt interest a great many. Judge Sparks has put his order in for an entire outfit, and we understand will play center on a team captained by Vern Norris.

WHAT DO YOU DO WITH YOURSELF, BOBBY?

Lucky thing for Frankfort that they don't play basketball on Sunday, or else they would be clear out of the race, with the blue laws enforced in that city.

With Newcastle having two first teams and two second teams in the field this year, Markin 'em up has so much to do that his sport page looks like the Chicago Tribune. You oughta let the girls organize a few teams, and get the faculty lined up in uniforms, and then you would be well supplied with basketball.

Say, Markin 'em up, you oughta see our coaches play. We got a hefty bunch composed of all high school coaches in Rush county, and they are real stars.

"From the Press Box" the peppy column in the Kokomo Tribune, is now being received daily by Hittin' 'em, and we can keep in close touch with what is going on in that section. "Hoosier Courtship," appearing in the Richmond Palladium, has made his appearance again this season.

WHERE'S THE TEA, OSWALD? Newcastle, who was making arrangements for their pink tea reception with Hagerstown last Friday night, didn't have much need for tea. Hagerstown won, 41 to 24.

One of the other Newcastle teams counted a victory over Middletown, 18 to 15. Newcastle is anxious for Hagerstown on November 30, and Hittin' 'em wouldn't be a bit surprised to see Newcastle combine those teams for that game.

HOLD SOUTHEASTERS TO TIE

It was Arlington's ball, 2nd down and 4 yards to go when time was called in the football game at Arlington yesterday between the Southeasterns of Indianapolis and the Arlington Athletic club, the game ending in a scoreless tie. The teams were evenly matched in weight and both played hard and clean throughout the entire game. The Southeastern team was as clean playing team as ever played at Arlington, there being no complaints of any kind.

During the first half neither team could gain to any advantage, both being held for downs frequently and forced to punt. The Southeasterns had the ball on Arlington's ten yard line once in the 2nd quarter by blocking an Arlington punt, but were held in their tracks when they threatened to score. It was in the 4th quarter when the tide began to turn in Arlington's favor after the Southeasterns kicked to Arlington's 20 yard line, then Clarence Northam, playing his first game this year, went in at half and made several long end runs, and Wicker going through the line with good gains. The next home game will be played on Thanksgiving day when the Brookside Cubs return for a game.

Alfalfa is Profitable

Warsaw, Ind., Nov. 19—Alfalfa this year proved to be one of the most profitable crops of Kosciusko county farmers, according to T. A. Parker, county agricultural agent.

Despite the increase in acreage in this section during the last three years, there is this fall practically no baled alfalfa for sale, farmers themselves using all that they have produced.

Loss alfalfa is selling at from $20 to $25 a ton in the mow. This price means from $25 to $30 a ton delivered.

After Heavyweight Crown

(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Nov. 19—Jack Renault, the Canadian heavyweight, wants to fight Jack Dempsey for the world's championship, and if he has an even break in luck, he may get a shot at the title.

Renault is, at the present time, anything but the logical contender for Dempsey's crown, but he will make himself one because he is going about it the right way.

After knocking out Floyd Johnson, Renault said he was willing to fight Harry Wills, Tom Gibbons and Luis Firpo to prove his right to meet Dempsey.

Leo Flynn, Renault's manager, is one of the shrewdest managers in the business and he is also one of its more fluent orators. Flynn has done a lot of talking in advancing the claims of other heavyweights, but he seems to be sincere in his willingness to put Renault through the real test.

Renault now is not a great fighter. He may develop into one because he cannot help but improve himself by fighting top-notchers. The Canadian, in his present form, seems only to lack the aggressive spirit of a natural fighter. It is said of him that he is a "front runner," but he showed no signs of being timid in the Johnson fight.

When allowed to fight his own way or when he can force his opponent to fight his way, Renault is a good

fighter. He can box and he can hit. His punching is accurate and well timed, even if it does lack the power of Dempsey, Gibbons and Wills.

Renault's worst fault lies in his tendency toward too much precaution. He prefers to play safe instead of charging in aggressively when he gets an opening. Had he been a great fighter he would have stopped Johnson many rounds before the fifteenth. He passed up many opportunities because he preferred to stay back and counter Johnson when he tore into him.

He cannot do that against Gibbons, Wills or Firpo. Only a rushing, charging fighter of the Dempsey type will beat the three leading contenders for the title.

Renault would not last five rounds if he tried to stand back and smack Gibbons, Wills or Firpo when they came into him. One good crack from any one of them would remove all chances for Renault to return a punch.

One thing is certain, and it will be a big help to him, Renault will not be overmatched. If Leo Flynn wants to match Renault with Gibbons, Wills and Firpo, it is a cinch that Flynn believes in his fighter. Flynn never will knock over a big money prospect for a little ready dough.

Floyd Johnson was one of the most promising young heavyweights to come up in four years, but he is clear out of the class now because he was overmatched in every one of his fights. He had nothing but courage, and a stout heart isn't the factor now that it was in days of Bat Nelson.

The Younger Generation

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 19—When six boys of fifteen and sixteen years of age were brought into juvenile court here in one week for intoxication, officials of the court admitted it was about time for some of the parents of the city to step in and see what was becoming of the younger generation.

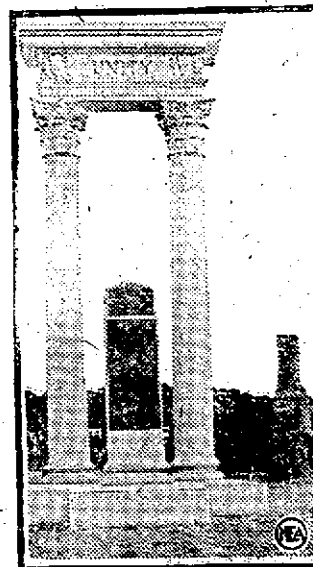

"It is very unusual, the way these boys were brought in at once," said Miss Isabella Somerville, head probation officer. "But it is time to give a little serious thought to the situation when boys hardly out of knee pants can get intoxicated."

One young tippler, it was revealed, kept a half pint of white mule buried under a rosebush across the street from his home and went over now and then to have a clandestine nip when his parents were not watching.

PARALYZED IN LOWER LIMBS

LE ROY WOLFE
Marion, Ind.
After All Other Methods Failed
Chiropractic Adjustments
Brought Life to Paralyzed Limbs

Expression of a thankful mother, she says: Our son, Le Roy Wolfe, aged six years, was paralyzed from the hips down, and could not walk or use his lower limbs.

His health was poor and the medical doctors did not give him any relief, so we tried J. M. Starr, chiropractor, who gave him chiropractic spinal adjustments.

We could see an improvement from the very first adjustment. He was completely restored to health and regained the use of his limbs, the paralytic condition having entirely left him.

We are very thankful for this health restoring science and are read chiropractic boosters. Signed: Mrs. Erna Wolfe, 1602 West First street, Marion, Ind.

No condition is utterly hopeless, and Chiropractic has proved effective where many other methods have failed.

A delicious dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock and covers were laid for the honored guests and Miss Lillian Priest and Miss Magdalene Arbuckle. The evening was spent in dancing and music.

The Rev. A. W. Jackman of Attica, Ind., was the dinner guest of Orville Brooks and family of Mays Sunday at noon.

B. F. MILLER COMING HOME
B. F. Miller, who has been in an Indianapolis hospital for the past several weeks taking treatments for pernicious anemia and who has been critically ill, was to be removed to his home in this city late this afternoon. He is reported much improved in health.

Richmond—Police Chief Everman has started a campaign to stop the sale of cigarettes to minors. Several violators have been arrested. Tipton is putting the same rule in force.

Party Dresses

Ruffles always did belong to young girls and they seem more than ever popular. They may be so wide as to be really flounces or may be narrow and numerous. Soft pink crepe, white, cream trimmed with pink or blue, white georgette over a color—these frocks have no hint of sophistication but their charm is indisputable.

EDUCATION IS SERMON THEME

owing to another engagement. His substitute will be the Rev. George C. Chandler of Indianapolis, who will speak on "Evangelism." Four other speakers will appear during the week, speaking on various phases of the church's activity.

"The Literature of Power" was the subject of the discourse the Rev. H. W. Hargett, pastor of the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church delivered at the assembly room of the court house Sunday morning. He took his text from First Timothy, fourth chapter, 13 and 14 verses, "Give heed to reading: Neglect not the gift that is in thee." He said in part:

Ideas and emotions are the moving forces of humanity. The world moves forward or backward, upward or downward because of what men think and feel. Education deals chiefly with the intellect, religion with the heart. Both are essential for the development of a full and efficient life. The education that aims only at filling the boy or girl for a job is very imperfect. It is but an adjunct of the shop or farm or office. The true goal of education must be the deepening and enriching of the whole life. That goal can only be reached by the aid of religion that brings the pupil into touch with God.

One purpose of all education should be to cultivate in the pupil a love for the literature of power. There is a place for the literature, that ministers to our pleasure, that brings rest and recreation, but our primary need is for dynamic spiritual driving power for life and for the work of life. The literature of power is characterized by vision and inspiration.

—and somehow gifts you have made have an added appeal to the one who receives them. There's an indication of something more than just a desire to select something some one likes or needs. Our Art Needlework Section is just brimming over with fascinating ideas and suggestions. You will find here a complete line of high quality stamped merchandise—all new patterns—made on linen finish material. We invite comparison of quality, patterns and prices.

Among the stamped pieces are pillow cases, already hemstitched, of linen finished tubing; 45 inch table covers, buffet sets, tea pot holders, 5 piece luncheon sets, laundry bags, napkin holders, double oven mitts, card table covers, napkins to match sets. Particularly attractive for the little folks are cunning doll tea sets, buffet sets and silver holders containing small knives, forks and spoons.

Think of the things you can make for the home, such as table runners, fancy pillows and lamp shades, and for these the assortments are almost unlimited of beautiful silks, tapestries, crashes and linens. Such pretty things can always be contrived from ribbons and there are such gorgeous ones here. Innumerable shades of yarns for sweaters—and everything to make up for the wee tot.

A big showing and wide range of 6 strand Flosses in all colors, guaranteed color fast and very reasonably priced.

Surely you will want to give handkerchiefs. To this end are linen handkerchief squares in all colors and of best quality.

ward show of things we can discern their real worth. "Where there is no vision, the people perish." They become the slaves of the material. They have no sure perception of the eternal verities, spinning through the vesture of time and circumstance; they have no eye for the goings of God in common days among common things. The best work of the world is always the result of the vision of that which may be. The books which draw us out of our littleness into God's vastness should have a large place in our reading.

Inspiration characterizes the literature of power. It calls forth the deepest and best within us. Maeterlinck maintains in his "Treasure of the Humble" that our most real life is not the conscious life but the unconscious life that lies under it. He is right. The part that every man knows of himself is small compared with the part that he does not know. The average man who goes daily to his work, reads the papers, maintains his family and is a decent citizen, has in him powers and capacities of which he is not aware. The society woman who flutters among the superficialities, who is interested chiefly in "what shall we eat and drink and where withal shall we be clothed" and how will it look when we have it on, has depths and resources and is capable of a fuller life than she has yet dreamed. The literature of power will set free the soul.

It will call for the thrilling inner powers, it will develop larger thought wider sympathy, nobler charity and above all it helps us to open our souls to the divine life. Among the books of power, the Bible stands supreme. In it we find the vision of life's possibilities and the inspiration needed to bring life to its fulness and power here on earth and to its fadeless inheritance hereafter.

Religious Reformers
At the Main Street Christian church, the pastor delivered the last of his sermons on the "Religious Reformers," the address of the morning being on "Alexander Campbell and Associates." He said in part:

We present the life stories of these men for information and inspiration and not to exalt them; as the defenders of the faith and not its founders. Thomas Campbell, the father of Alexander, was born in County Down, Ireland, in 1763, and the son in County Antrim, 1788. The father came to America in 1807, the son and family following in 1809. The liberality of the father towards members of other communions caused charges to be made against him and though he was not convinced yet, the vote of censure caused him and his friends to start a new religious movement with which the son became identified and the leading spirit that has grown from a few feeble people to nearly one and one half millions of followers and a recognized power in the religious world.

At the evening hour the subject was "Duties and Demands of the Divine" as a stumbling block to many in living, and becoming Christians, the sum total being presented in Eccl. 12, 13 and 14, the conclusion of the whole matter being to fear God and keep his commandments, to do justly, love mercy and walk humbly before God as presented by Micah, 6:8, the fear of God, obedience to Him as the whole duty Godward, justice and mercy towards our fellow men as being all of the law and prophets.

Christ's Present Day Methods
The morning sermon in the United Presbyterian church, delivered by the pastor, the Rev. E. G. McKibben, was based on the text "For the Son of Man came to seek and the Son that which was lost." Luke 19:10. The outline was as follows:

Many sidelights are given on the purpose of His Mission, but there are several direct statements made as follows, for judgment He came into the world; He came to bear witness until the truth; He came to confer life; He came to destroy the works of the devil; He came to set up a Kingdom; the text says He came to seek and to save that which was lost.

The world was lost, the Old Testament church was lost, individual souls were lost, and our Lord spent His life seeking lost souls. No one was so sick, but he healed him; No one was so sinful or depraved, but he was able and willing to save. His invitations contain such words as "all," and "everyone" and "whosoever."

His present day methods were strongly emphasized by the pastor. He works through parents in the home. As the home goes so goes the church, the community and the state. Nothing can take the place of home training. When a little pink and white bundle of humanity is placed in the parental arms, an obligation also comes "To pray with it and for it, to teach it of its lost conditions by nature, and to lead it to the Saviour." "The promise is to you and to your children." "Train up a child in the way it should go and when it is old it will not depart from it." He works through Sabbath school

In closing the pastor said: Don't look for perfection in the church. It is a spiritual sanitarium where men and women saved by grace, recover from spiritual disease. In it they grow and wax strong in the faith. In it they cooperate with their Lord in seeking to save the lost.

THE OLD HOME TOWN By Stanley

MOVIES

Harold Lloyd at Princess

Harold Lloyd opened a three-day engagement in "Safety Last!" at the Princess today. It is recognized as the best picture he ever made and has more thrills per foot than any ever produced. Most of "locations" are twelve stories above the street level where the gymnastic movie star scales the walls of a building and hangs by the hands of the clock.

"The Silent Command"

"The Silent Command," a William Fox production, opened at the Mystic today for two days. It has thrills galore and powerful, pulsating, dramatic action. It is a sea story in which a ship wreck, realistic beyond belief, is the feature. A love intrigue figures in the plot and adds deep interest to the story.

At Castle Today Only

When more than appealing love story of two handsome young people is woven into a plot of mystery and adventure in the South Seas, the resulting photoplay seems certain to prove fine entertainment. That is the case with "The Ragged Edge," based on Harold MacGrath's novel, which Distinctive Pictures Corporation has used as a vehicle for Alfred Lunt and Mimi Palmieri two new stars. The picture will be seen today only at the Castle.

Distinctive Pictures Corporation has given us a story which moves forward swiftly, with never a slackening of pace or interest. Forrest

The four boys who escaped gave their names as James N. Currin, William Neirouter, Charles Geran and Thomas E. Rafferty.

Rafferty, who was more inclined to talk than the others, told the coroner, Dr. John M. Lee, that he and Glaser were thrown out of the automobile, and that on its second turn, the machine caught Glaser underneath, breaking his neck, crushing his chest and the right side of his face.

The boys testified that they attended a social in Cincinnati Saturday night and decided to drive to Indianapolis early Sunday, to visit some of Glaser's relatives, who lived in a town near Indianapolis.

The accident happened on the slope of the hill just east of the bridge outside Arlington. Glaser's body was taken into Frank Offutt's home, which was just across the road, and the four boys were taken to the home of Mrs. A. G. Shauck where they were given something to eat.

They were brought to Rushville by the coroner and later taken in charge by Mrs. Ed Crosby. The boys, none of whom appeared to be over 19 years of age, said they were members of the Catholic church and members of the Knights of Columbus here interested themselves in their case and tried to prevail on at least two of them to remain here with the body of their late companion.

Bloomington—H. A. Astell, who has a farm near here on which he has 1,000 turkeys, is taking no chances of having the Thanksgiving birds stolen. He has installed an electrical "turkey alarm" which he declares would give marauders an unpleasant surprise.

You can be free from Eczema!

WIERD, creeping, annoying sensations—scratch—scratch—scratch—eczema and other skin eruptions, spoiling your complexion—causing you uncalled for embarrassment—anguish—ruling your temper. All because of impurities that are rampant in your system—because your red blood cells are dormant.

S. S. S. cleans up skin eruptions through its power of cleansing the blood. Herbs and barks, carefully selected and scientifically prepared and proportioned, which make up the ingredients in S. S. S. are the most feared and dreaded enemies of skin disorders. Eczema, pimples, boils, blackheads and other skin diseases pack up and leave the system when S. S. S. sends new rich blood coursing through your veins.

Have a general house cleaning for your system. Let S. S. S. rid you of those impurities which tend to keep you in a run-down condition. Skin disorders are nothing more than billboards announcing that the system is "off color." S. S. S. is sold by the leading drug stores. The large size bottle is the more economical.
